

The best way for a candidate to change their appointment is through the web.

If a candidate wishes to reschedule or cancel an exam, they would go back to the web landing page and sign into their account:

Application

All candidates seeking a Mississippi license please complete an application at www.sircon.com/mississippi or www.nipr.com. Instructions concerning licensing requirements can be found on the department's website at www.mid.ms.gov.

Age Requirements

All producer and adjuster applicants, must be 18 years of age before taking an examination. Bail Agents applicants must be 21 years of age.

Prelicensing Course

All applicants should complete the prelicensing course before taking the state examination.

Identification (ID) Requirements

2 forms of ID are required of ALL exam candidates at the test center. The first and last name on the ID must match exactly the first and last name on all IDs and on the registration. Both IDs must be originals, valid and not expired. One ID must contain name, photograph, and signature. The second ID must contain name and signature. Candidates who do not present two forms of ID will be turned away from testing and lose their fees.
